YOUR GOOD LUCK.

It is your good luck to be situated conveniently near such a large and choice stock of goods as can be found at Saur & Balsley; to have at your command a generous and carefully selected assortment lacking in none of its details and representing the most advanced ideas in quality. This fact runs through their mammoth stock, which is perhaps the largest to be found in Northwestern Ohio.

Reasoning people say, who have investigated the subject, who have traded here, there and everywhere, who know by experience just what they are talking about, say that Saur & Balsley beats all their competitors as to quality, variety and prices of goods.

Having been encouraged by a grand success in business in Henry county for the past quarter of a century and over, Saur & Balsley have exerted themselves more than ever this season to please their large trade, and especially those looking up goods for the holidays. Therefore this holiday stock will be more attractive than ever, giving one an opportunity to buy holiday presents, both useful and ornamental, at exceedingly low prices.

Besides an endless variety of books and fancy stationery, pen holders, gold pens, etc., they have a large assortment of combs and brush trays, collar and cuff boxes, manicure trays, cut glass bottles, fancy china vases, shaving sets, fancy hand mirrors, albums, photo boxes, handkerchief and glove boxes; in fact everything in the latest celluloid novelties to make desirable gifts for Christmas and New Year.

Saur & Balsley are making great preparations for the holiday business, and Napoleon's greatest store offers unheard of inducements for your trade. Their goods have been marked at such alluring prices and at so great a saving of money to the public as has never been attempted in Henry county. Their stock of paints, oils and brushes is always the largest, and their wall paper department is always kept up on the latest styles of paper and decorations. Come in and examine their styles and prices.

Pure drugs and medicines are always found at this house. Prescriptions carefully compounded with care by competent pharmacists.

about crackers being unpalatable, it's because you haven't got the right kind. Get Fox's XXXX square wafer butter and see the difference. The great success of Fox's XXXX square wafer butter crackers has led others to imitate them. Be sure and take one of the cheap imitations having the same outward appearance or with similar names. See that the imprint "Fox" is on the cracker.

Stealing Gloves.

Last Saturday afternoon the suspicious of Marshalls Burns and Dray was aroused by a stranger who was offering a good pair of gloves for sale for 15 cents. He was asked to give an account of himself and upon his failure to comply was run in. He confessed Monday morning to have stolen the gloves from the clothing store of Henry Meyer, and the Mayor sentenced him to the work house for 30 days.

Holiday Presents.

The time is at hand when persons will be considering Christmas presents, and we desire to say to all such, make no selections until after you have consulted our advertising columns, and if you do not see anything advertised to suit your fancy, it will be unfortunate for you and business men who do not offer inducements to purchasers. Our merchants and dealers should see that no dollar goes out of our town to purchase holiday goods, and should offer such attractions as would be sure winners of all the trade in and around Napoleon. Buy from our advertisers if you want the best and cheapest.

Damascus Has Now Two Voting Precincts.

The county election board on Monday divided Damascus township into two voting precincts, in conformity with the following resolution:

Resolved, That Damascus township, Henry county, Ohio, be and the same is hereby divided into two voting precincts. Said precincts shall be known as Damascus East Precinct and Damascus West Precinct. The said East Precinct shall contain all territory lying east of the section line road running north and south, between sections 4 and 5, and 10, 16 and 15, 21 and 22, 28 and 27, 33 and 34. Said West Precinct shall contain all territory lying west of said section line road.

It's All Right.

Several Napoleon merchants are using silver dollars for advertising purposes. They are not giving away the dollars, but are using them as billboards. They paste labels on the big silver cart wheels reading: "Take me back to Blank's store and get one dollar and five cents' worth of groceries for me". Citizens in several towns complained that the labels come off and stick to their pockets and that the gum makes the money unpleasant to handle. The United States District Attorney was appealed to, but he says it is not against the law to use coins, but he thought from experience and from all he heard, that public opinion would endorse a law making such a use of the national coinage a crime.

How To Raise Children.

The first thing to do is to make your home pleasant. This is best done by the parents being pleasant to each other and second by being pleasant to the children. When you speak to them, don't yell at them as if they were dogs or cattle, don't swear at them, but speak pleasantly as if they were kings and priests; if you are an errand boy or a certain piece of work is finished, thank them as kindly as you would a stranger who had performed it for nothing, and we can assure you that your children will in turn be as nice and pleasant to you. Next furnish them with good books and papers which cast but little at Saur & Balsley's Drug and Book store and when they get tired of reading or are too young to read; read to them; stop now and then to explain and you will soon have a little Heaven in your own family.

An Interesting Report.

The report of the Ohio Chickamauga and Chattanooga Park Commission for 1895, which is of interest to the ex-soldiers as follows: In our report of 1893 the commission accounted for money expended prior to that time and there was then in the hands of the treasurer of the commission $3,158.91. In the hands of the treasurer of state subject to the order of the commission, $64,060, making a total on November 15, '94, of $67,218.91. Since Nov. 15, 1894, there has been used for expenses of the commission (this includes expenses incurred at the dedication), $39,967.09; in payment for monuments, $57,817; total expenditures, $97,784.09, leaving a balance in the hands of the treasurer of the commission at this date of $69,434.82. Why We Are Happy.

Trade is rushing, growing every day. Loads of new goods arriving. We are going to do a great holiday business, it started off very lively. HORN & NORDEN.

Wind Storm.

Between 1 and 4 o'clock Tuesday morning Napoleon and vicinity were visited with a more severe wind storm than has taken place for several years past. The storm reached its height at 3:30 o'clock. Trees were uprooted all over the city, outhouses blown down and fences and chimneys destroyed. The frames of both Jacob Brown's and Frank Van Ness' new houses were leveled to the ground. The pinnacle of the M. E. church spire was blown off and struck D. Wilson's residence, tearing a hole in the siding. Probably the most curious freaks of the storm were the blowing out of one of the large plate glass windows in Shoe-maker Bros. store and the disappearance of most of the blinds of the new band stand.

The damage throughout the county will be great. The farmers come in for their full share of damage, in having their trees, fences and out-buildings scattered to the four winds.

For Sale—Dry Goods.

Looks rather odd don't it? But that's all we have for sale and we are selling lots of them. See what a little money will buy. HORN & NORDEN.

New York Fashion Letter.

The utility of the tailor made gown for every day wear has established it as a part of every well dressed woman's outfit. The full skirt is plain and the jacket is usually made with short ruffle back, and strapped seams. These skirts are not interlined, but are finished with a narrow stiff facing around the bottom. All varieties of fancy silk wafers are again the rage, but the new velvet bloomers are the most popular of all and velvet for entire gown is much in vogue. It is not always silk velvet, but velveteen in stripes, plaids and figures are variously employed. The employed. The newest outside garments are very much trimmed, sometimes entirely with braiding or passementerie and often with fur, principally sable and Persian fur trimmings. The old fashion of using jet embroidery velvet is one of the most popular fancies of the winter. A trimming of velvet is a necessary part of every out door as well as in-door garment, and a vest of some bright colored velvet tends to lighten a seemingly a dark cloth jacket. The lining for the coats and capes is very gorgeous. The richest broadest and finest in the newest designs being employed. Some of the newest capes have high inside collars faced with real antique lace. There are gorgeous mantles that reach from the neck to the hem of the gown for opera and evening wear.

In the latest numbers of the Fashion Magazine published by A. McDowell & Co. are a large variety of these latest styles. These periodicals are always very popular and are constantly increasing in popularity. "La Mode de Paris" and "Paris Album of Fashion" cost $3.50 per year subscription, or $3.50 a copy. "French Dressing" is $2.00 per annum or 30 cents a copy; and "La Mode" $1.50 a year or 15 cents a copy. If you are unable to procure either of these journals from your new dealer, don't take any substitute, but apply by mail to Messrs. A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th Street, New York.

We are going out of the boot and shoe business. All goods at first cost. HORN & NORDEN.

Serious Accident.

David Pontious, an old and respected citizen of Fulton county met with an accident last Wednesday evening that will confine him to his house for some time to come. In going out the back door of his house he missed his footing, and in falling broke his right leg between the knee and hip. What makes it more serious is the fact that Mr. P. is blind and in the 70th year of his age. He is the father of Mrs. John Tanner, of this city.

They Were Regular Spongers.

At Youngstown the other day two tramps were in a saloon carrying a gallon jug. They walked up to the bar and ordered it filled with whisky. The bartender did so and the tramps tendered him $1 in payment. The bartender remonstrated, stating that it was $4 a gallon. The cunning tramps refused to pay and said they only wanted a dollar's worth. The bartender emptied the jug and gave them their dollar back. They had sponged in the jug and after getting outside they broke the jug, squeezed out the sponges and satisfied their craving appetites with a couple of drinks each.

Arrested for Assault.

Geo. Dancer, a well known farmer living near Okolona, was arrested Monday on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Mary Ludeman, a widow living on a farm about a mile and a half west of this city. Mrs. Ludeman has a daughter about 18 years old named Ella. Last summer Dancer hired out to Mrs. Ludeman and he and the daughter became quite intimate. On Monday Dancer had filled up on bud liquor and in the evening called at Mrs. Ludeman's home. Upon being reproached by the girl for being the author of her ruin, he jumped on her and began choking and pounding her. Mrs. Ludeman dragged him away and came to town to swear out a warrant. He was arrested on the charge of assault with intent to kill and had a hearing before Squire Fisk Tuesday when he was placed under $100 bond for his appearance for trial. Upon his failure to furnish bond he was taken back to jail.

"No less than a million dollars worth of dry goods are destroyed every year in this world to supply ladies with samples," said a traveling salesman in one of our stores, the other day. The amount is not lost, the consumption in this manner gives the working people much more to do.

A new swindling scheme has been devised. A farmer is induced to buy a bill of groceries of a traveling salesman, the goods to be shipped from some city. In payment the man agrees to take eggs. To make it all straight and right, the farmer gives his note for the goods and the traveling man gives him for the eggs. The goods and salesman are never seen later, but the farmer's note turns up at a bank.

MARION, Ind., Nov. 25.—While the last car was coming in on the West End line a horse and rider suddenly loomed up in front of the car. The motorman applied the brakes with all of his power, bringing it to a sudden stop. The passengers made a rush for the door and expected to see a mangled mass under the car, but, to their great surprise, nothing was seen of horse and rider. The passengers looked at each other in wonderment and finally concluded that it was the phantom of the horse and rider killed at that place several weeks ago.

The Bicycle on Ice.

On with the sport. Let the wheel roll unconfined. See winter's risks, no snow, nor wind. Shall check its wild career.

And now here comes a man out of the wild and woolly west who says we may ride our wheels all winter if we wish. Yes, not only this, but ride faster than ever if we will. This is a matter that will cut considerable ice with many devotees of wheeling during the coming winter months. The bicycle has always heretofore been considered erratic and drunken enough in its movements to more than satisfy most riders, and particularly new beginners, but this man audaciously proposes to give it a shake. It is all very simple. You have only to remove the front wheel from its forks, substitute the "skate" in its place, take the tire from the rear wheel, put the ice tire thereon, and there you are. This attachment was experimented with last winter on Lake Michigan, and it is claimed, a record of one-quarter of a mile in 20 seconds was established with it. The possibilities of century runs up the Hudson, ice bicycle races and races between ice bicycles and iceboats open up a new and most attractive vista in the field of sports. Next—New York Tribune.

Arrested the Whole Audience. A good theatrical story is told of Herr Woltersdorf, the German manager and actor. One Sunday, in the winter, he left the Stadt theater and drove to his little playhouse, "Ant den Hansen," outside the town. The play announced on the bills was "Kabale und Liebe." The audience consisted of one solitary person. Nevertheless Woltersdorf insisted on beginning the play, to the chagrin of his company, who expected that the empty playhouse meant a holiday for the actors. They took the wildest liberty with the text, and scarcely a word reached the audience. Heronup the solitary audience stood up and demanded that the play should be duly rendered according to the playbill. "Arrest the audience!" said the grim manager to a policeman who lurked behind one of the pillars. The officer seized the audience, saying, "I arrest you for disturbing the course of a public entertainment." To the great relief of the actors, the whole "audience" was then marched off to the watchhouse, and the play came to an end. —London Telegraph.
